Please note:

New players 1st carnival is covered by insurance at Board sanctioned events.

Casual players, after 2 carnivals played, will be fully affiliated. No casual player, who has attended one carnival, can participate at Board run fixtures unless final payment of $60 is received by the Treasurer 14 days prior to R&R Trophy & Inter-Assn Championships as per by-laws.

Social Member – Casual Player this allows a paid up Social Member to play one carnival, per season, at their Clubs local carnival without having to pay the Casual Player levy; if they play again in the season they then must pay the full fee to upgrade to a playing member. The carnival levy of $10.00 still applies.

Junior Member to be under 16 years of age as at 1st January - as per IPC Rules

Sub Junior is someone new to the game (under 16 years of age), not yet capable of playing in a team at a carnival competition; or for very young players (i.e still on lead ropes or requiring help on the field). Sub Juniors may upgrade through the season by paying the additional membership fee.
